“ Growing up a block away from the Cenci family home in Royal Oak I can't remember a time when Del did not open the Cenci home and "Fridge" to me. Del always made you feel like your were family - so much so for me, that on Christmas day I would often leave my real family and join Del and the Cenci family. And my wife and I will always remember Del's wedding gift to us - four Italian decorated pasta plates - they were the longest lasting and most used of our wedding presents. We will miss Del's smile, warmth and joy.

“ Del was a special friend to my mother. Remember her visiting my mother (Connie Schamante) when my mother began to fail. She would encourage to " get " dressed " as my mother was always in her robe when Del visited. May she rest in peace now.
