“ Aunt Laurie had the gift to make you feel comfortable. She was always seemed pleasant and in good cheer. Our family stayed with her and Uncle Joe on our visits from Alaska and she in turn visited with us in Alaska. I am sure she will be missed. Yet, the Warner girls from Filer will live on in our memories.

“ I can't begin to describe the loss of losing such a wonderful neighbor, friend. Laurie was one of those people that you couldn't help but want to be around her and her infectious laugh....she will always hold a special place in my heart. I know she's probably got the "Man upstairs" in stitches! Love you Laurie...your neighbor

“ Our family in Madison was very saddened by this news. Aunt Laurie was my Godmother, and among my earliest memories is staying with her and Uncle Joe. Somehow, I associate one of those visits with the song, "Singing on a Star," and a lot of fun. Even without that memory, however, her warmth and good cheer would have made her very special to me, just as they made her special to so many others. My mother, Aunt Mae, feels a very deep void with this loss. It leaves her as the last of the Warner "beauties," and without her favorite person to laugh with. She had planned to call Aunt Laurie on her birthday.
