“ An outstanding memory of Delpine for me is that in the early days of Perpetual Adoration we were sturggling to keep the hours filled.If someone cancelled at the last minute, Delphine was always willing to help out & fill in for the hour. May our Eucharistic Lord Bless Delpine for all eternity in a special way.

“ My condolences and prayers go out to Delphine's family. Actually, I knew her primarily through my friend, her daughter, Mary, and from encountering her over the years, either at Mass or other events at Shrine parish. I mostly remember her warm smile and cheery response to inquiries about her welfare. She was devoted to her God, and to the Church which provided frequent opportunities for her to receive Jesus in the Eucharist. May she be granted her lifelong prayer to rejoice with the angels and to be united forever with her Lord in Heaven.
