We'll always remember our younger days when life wasn't so complicated and the times we had together at Lakeville.

“ I grew up with, and graduated with her son Jeremy, spent many Days and Nights at their house, as well as her parents house, and their up north family cottage in my youth. She was a wonderful woman, and like a second Mom whenever I was around. Sadly I haven't seen her in many years until I recently visited her in hospital. RIP Deni we lost a good one.
