“ Dear Theresa Ray & Family So sorry Denise lost her valiant fight to stay among us. At least she is now at peace but I know the hole she has left in your hearts will remain. You did give her a loving home and love. Try to remember that on tough days. I am only writing and not attending as I have been ill. Much love to all my cousins. Love Rita Moxley

“ I'm sorry about Denise. I'd hoped they could arrest her disease. She still had plans. I know how much she loved her family. She was always talking about how she'd gone shopping with her mom and about parties at Tom and Deb's among other things. I know she loved her nieces and her nephews. I'm glad I saw her during her last days at her condo just a couple of weeks ago. She sent me out to get her a burger and a few other things. She wss thin, but, I'd hoped she was home for good. I'll miss calling her and hearing all her stories about all the Redmonds. Nelson
