

Diane M. Pozolo

April 2, 1954 - February 18, 2021

Diane M. Pozolo (Dougherty/Parenteau), age 66, passed away on February 18, 2021. Beloved daughter of the late Willis and Helen Pozolo. Loving mother of Caitlin Parenteau and the late Michael Parenteau. Dear sister of Cheryl Webb and Steven (Karen) Pozolo. Loving aunt and great aunt. Diane worked at Ross Roy advertising for many years and later went on to work for the City of Utica until she retired. Diane "Di" was a passionate gardener who loved to spend time outdoors tending to her plants. She always enjoyed watching and discussing sports with her son and was a huge fan of the Red Wings. Diane also cherished the traveling and camping she did with her family throughout her life. She will be remembered for a lot but particularly for being so strong and caring, and of course for her unique laugh that will continue to make us all smile. A visitation will take place at the Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home 8459 Hall Road (3 Blks E. of Van Dyke) Utica, on Thursday from 1pm until the time of service at 5pm. “ I just learned of Diane's passing. Very sorry to hear. I worked with Diane at Ross Roy. She had a great personality, and a way making everyone feel like they were valued. The party never really got started until Diane arrived.

“ Caitlin,

I worked with your Mom at Ross Roy many years ago. We remained friends over the years.

No one could light up a room like your Mom. And, as you know, her laugh was infectious.

Please know that she was very, very proud of you. Whenever several of us would get together for dinner, she always spoke of your many accomplishments and endeavors.

*May God Shine Upon You,
