“ Aunt Diane touched all those she met with her easy smile and welcoming generous ways. I have fond memories of staying at Diane's home every Summer when traveling from Arizona to Michigan. Diane always made sure we were comfortable, even making sure she had the Kid's favorite snacks and cereal on hand. I will always appreciate Diane acknowledging our Birthdays and Christmas by mail each year. Diane's love of talking brings a smile to my face. You could always count on a LONG conversation in person or by phone, especially if you mentioned the Red Wings or the Lions. I will miss Diane's enthusiasm for Life right down to hearing about the Flowers she was going to plant this year. Rest in Peace Aunt Diane.
