

Diane Tanghe

May 6, 1959 - March 26, 2024

Diane Tanghe (VanRyckeghem), age 64, passed away peacefully at home on March 26, 2024, surrounded by her loving family.

Diane was the devoted wife of Robert for over 40 years, beloved mother to Theresa (Bradley) Evens and Jeffrey (Taylor) Tanghe, and loving grandmother to James, Henry, Payton and Calvin. Diane was the dear sister of Thomas (Gail) VanRyckeghem, Ann (Richard) Panoff, David (Charlotte) VanRyckeghem and James (Lisa) VanRyckeghem, sister-in-law to Thomas (Leslie) Tanghe and Debra Tanghe, and was preceded in death by her brother Donald VanRyckeghem, parents Gustav and Marie VanRyckeghem and father and mother-in-law, James and Hedwiges Tanghe. She was a cherished Godmother to Brian Panoff, Mark VanRyckeghem and Jack Tanghe. She was an adoring aunt to many wonderful nieces and nephews and loved by so many more family and friends.

Diane instilled her love of cooking and reading in her children and grandchildren and enjoyed sharing laughter, joy, and her favorite recipes with those she cared for. She loved fishing with her husband, tending to her beautiful gardens, traveling up north in the summer with her family, knitting blankets for her grandbabies, and spending her days with them watching them grow. For those who were lucky to know her, they knew that she was fiercely loyal to her family, courageous in her battle against cancer, and loved with her whole heart.

“ Diane was my only sister-in-law and I was lucky to have such a great one. It is impossible to think that she is gone. There is a great void in our family with her departure, but she will always remain in our hearts and minds and will never be forgotten. I was just a kid when she began dating my brother. I was the best man at their wedding, their neighbor in the early years, Godfather to their daughter Theresa, and proud uncle to both of the kids, Theresa and Jeff. And I was proud to be Diane's brother-in-law. You fought to the bitter end and still had so much more life to live. The lives of everyone in our family are better for having you as a part of them. The struggle has ended. Rest well dear sister-in-law.
