“ This poem was read at the services. It was written by Mom's neighbor Ron Jankowski.

*Over the years, Dee has protected and many times guided you, always loved you, in whatever you did or do.
With a warm understanding, but sometimes a limited patience, and yet, many times an overflow with her gentleness too.*

She has often given swift reassurance in soothing you of your fears and tears, constantly watched over you and treating you as best treasure, all through your growing years.

Her heart was full of forgiveness for most any mistake, big or small, and generous always in helping the family whose needs she had placed before all.

*She could utter a word of compassion and make all your cares fall away.
She often brightened your home with the sound of her laughter, and always made our life challenges interesting, in her own loving way.*

She possessed incredible wisdom and a certain insight with a special skill - In each human heart is that one special corner which only a mother, nona, or dear friend like Dee, can fill!

*God should be commended for this wonderful loving mother, nona and friend,
Dee ----- we were so privileged to have her with us, even though her time has come to its end.
Today, our hearts filled with sorrow and our eyes filled with tears, we can no longer hug her or tell her how much we will miss her, but we will tell others about her happy life, and how nice it was to* have her for a friend

“ When I first met Dee, I was engaged to my husband who was a friend of Cathy and her family. When I came to Detroit with David, Dee welcomed me into her home as part of the family. I have never felt so much love from someone I had just met. Over the years, I have grown to love Dee, and her amazing family, more each time I am with them. Dee's legacy, is the love she had had for her family and how her family now carries on her legacy. Thank you Dee for welcoming me and for being my friend.

“ I meet Dee years ago when in the Jaycee organization with her daughters Sharon and Lisa. Dee was always warm and loving and would open her home to our side committee and treat us all as if we were her daughters. Such a caring woman would be hard to meet again. My heart and prayer go out to all her family as I know she will leave a big void in their life, however the warm memories that come with Dee will be unsurpassed. Diane Easton Follis “ God bless you and thank you for your life as ours and all you've touched are better for your being. One only has to look at your legacy to see that. Thank you for all the love and smiles throughout my life and to all you gave your love and hugs. I know that you now reside in the communion of saints, but we'll miss that physical presence and know that we'll see each other when it's our turn. May He comfort the family and the bereaved ones with the best of His blessings and our love.
