“Granny, I miss you so much... I still can't believe you're gone. There was so much more I wanted to say at your service but as I tried to move the words in my heart to my mouth, the hurt just paralyzed me. But I think you know everything you were to me, even if I couldn't say it. I know you were tired and ready, but none of us were ready to let you go. I know you're in Heaven with all your lost loved ones, but I sure do miss you here on Earth. I always will. I very much look forward to the day I get to see you again and make you laugh. I will miss that so much. I love you grandma, and hope you send us a sign soon. xoxo

“Dear Elaine and Sandy I am so sorry for your lost. I know what you are going through. I know before my mom left I whispered in her ear that it was ok to let go. I told her to go be with her papa and Conrad. I didn't want to lose my mom but I didn't want to see her suffering any more. I know both our moms are in Heaven this day. I know words cant help the pain you are feeling. I will pray for your mom and granny and also both of you and ask God to give peace. Love you both, Darlene

“ To Sandy's "Granny". I didn't know you well, but only have fond memories of times we've spent. You always had a nice word and a smile for me. I'm glad you spent the last two years living with Elaine because it gave me a chance to see you more. You will be so dearly missed. Please watch over your family. I know they will miss you greatly. They love you so much. God bless you always granny Dolores. Erika

“ My Dear Mother, I can't tell you how much I miss you. I'd give anything to have you back and knocking that walker into all the walls and you taking over the bathroom. And you and big Max fighting. He loved you too! I thank God everyday for the last two years we spent together, with the good and the bad. I'd do it again in a minute. You devoted your life to making sure all three of your children were safe and kept us together in all the hard times we all shared. We love you for that. We will always hold you dear in our hearts and the pain of never seeing you is so hard to bear. Ma, we did have some good laughs these last two years, now I know where I get my sense of humor. I know that you're with Grandma & Grandpa now, I know you'll all be waiting for the rest of us to reunite in time, I pray you are now happy and free of all the suffering you endured in your life time, I'm so happy that the last two years I was able to care for you. God will be good to you; he knew you were tired and ready to go to him. I know you are in safe hands now and thank you for making all this as easy as possible for us. I still will always miss you and knowing you're with God: it will someday ease the pain of you leaving us..I love you ma Elaine

“ She has a smile that lights up a room. One of my fondest memories of her is that no matter what mood she was in, I wouldn't let up until she smiled, and it was usually accompanied with a loud knee slapping laugh as well...to be fair it was mostly because we were picking on Elaine and Sandy without them knowing. But you have to play to your audience....and I was as much her audience as she was mine. God bless you Delores, I'll miss you. Paul

“ To my dear friend Elaine, Your moms life wasn't always easy but I think the happiest times she had were with you these past months. You were a great daughter to her and I know she knew she was so lucky to have you to care for her.

“ Oh granny, I can't believe you're really gone. I miss you so much, but I know you were tired and ready to go Home. You'll always be near in spirit, and all the memories you left us with will get us through until we meet again. I will miss you so until then.
