“ To the Schroeder Family - My sincere condolences on the passing of Dolores. Although I never met her, I know through John that she was the matriarch of your family. Even though this is an emotional time for family and friends, let us rejoice in the love and sincere consideration she had for all of you and the people she encountered in her lifetime. May God comfort you during this difficult time.

“ Though I did not know Mrs. Schroeder personally, I grew up and went to school with her son John. John is a wonderful person and I am sure his mother had to be a wonderful woman and mother to raise her children to be such upstanding citizens and caring people. My thoughts and prayers go out to the whole family. I believe that Mrs. Schroeder is now in a beautiful pain free place with God and those of her family that have passed on before her. Love, Linda Bliss
