“ My Auntie Dee, as I always called her, has always taken care of everyone in the family. When I was a colicky premature infant she came over at night to help relieve my mom because my dad was working nights. Ever since then she was a constant source of loving support for our family. Growing up I remember her always going out of her way to make everyone feel cared for and loved. She put everyone before herself. My Auntie Dee will always be in my heart forever.
