“ I will always remember how loving Dolores was with everyone. She made the holidays a big deal, even in the hardest of times. Her and I spent time making a birthday cake for my son, a choo-choo train made from pound-cake where we carved out the train cars and filled them with candies. There was the year where she got Tim and Ceiri gigantic bunnies from the gift store at Beaumont Hospital (Royal Oak) where she worked for years. The bunnies were as big as the kids! When her own mother was in the nursing home, she would stop everyday on her way home from work to make sure she had been cared for well. She was never too tired. Forgiving, Loving, Giving, ad there for everyone!
