“ Anna and family, I'm so glad that my mom and I were able to visit Mecco a few days ago. He looked good and seemed so relieved to be home. I will miss his smile that lit up his face and his gentle way of engaging people in conversation. I will also miss his occasional bursts of stubbornness that, I believe, characterize Sammarinese men. Mecco, I hope that your tomatoes in your garden in heaven will be even BIGGER than your garden on earth, and I look forward to hearing more of your stories one day. I'm sure that God will be greeting you with some variation of the words "Well done, good and faithful servant"! Brian and Donna (Francini) Bonus
