

Dominic Eugene Carbone

April 29, 1960 - November 22, 2020

Dominic E. Carbone, our quick witted, hardworking, and generous dad, brother, uncle and friend left us suddenly on November 22, 2020 at his home in Roseville at the age of 60.

Dominic, better known as "Knock" or "Uncle Knocky" to those close to him will be remembered for his love for a good party, his hardworking mentality, and his love of good rock and roll. He was a giver and loved helping people, especially those in need. Knock spent most Tuesdays delivering food to local seniors for the Matrix Center and Forgotten Harvest in Metro Detroit. He truly loved helping people in the community.

He had a nickname for everyone, told the same jokes over and over (which still made us laugh), he was a total neat freak, and loved to cook a good meal. His daughter Hayley said, "as a child my Dad and I spent a lot of time in Greektown. We would go to Trappers Alley and watch them make fudge then get lunch at New Parthenon. Those were really good times with my dad." It was the simple things that made Dominic the happiest.

He loved sports, especially hockey and could always be found rooting for the Red Wings. Dominic worked for many years at Pat's Transmission in Detroit as a mechanic and more recently for Downey Plumbing as a plumbing assistant.

Dominic is survived by his dearest longtime girlfriend, Kim Strutz. Loving dad of Hayley (Eric) Turner. Proud grandfather of Harper, Finn and Reese. Dear brother of Judy (Joe) Kuhn, Sharon Carbone-McEachon and Carrie Carbone-Dobbs. He was predeceased by his parents Dominic and Demetra as well as his sisters, Michelina Baranowski and Mary Page.

A Celebration of Dominic's Life planned at a later date. Memorials appreciated to The Matrix Center (www.matrixhumanservices.org <<http://www.matrixhumanservices.org>>) or Forgotten Harvest (www.forgottenharvest.org <<http://www.forgottenharvest.org>>). “ Gosh I've known this family since I was 6,7 yrs old. Spent many summers there on Hazelridge; going between Aunt Peggy's and Aunt Dee's .
Always a hoot he was. My deepest sympathies to Dom's daughter and grandbabies, as well to the Kuhn sister's.
God bless you all.

Dominic has been in my life for years, only knowing who he was though. Kimmy is who I know but it's heartbreaking to me! But god will have his hands to pick Dominic up to heaven and kimmy, god will take care of you too,. Such great people, so sorry for his whole family's loss! But we all know kimmy and don were like peanut butter and jelly, Jesus give kimmy the courage and strength send her guardian angel to her, I love you always Diane DeLorenzo and George 💕💕💕🙏💕🙏💕
