“ Brother Don was one of the most faithful saints I have ever known: small in stature but large in fidelity to the Savior Who loves him and to His church which for him was more than a sheepfold, it was a great family house that needed a good doorkeeper. For that role, God made Don and blessed His church therewith. His diminutive stature cast no shade on the size of his heart or his surprisingly large singing voice, the strains of which remain in my memory. In the years while I was a member of that church, I cannot remember a time that, unless for good reason, Don was not in its assembly or other meetings. Though it might be said that Don needed his church, it is equally true that his church needed Don, upon whom it might bestow more abundant honour. His faithfulness till death is a testimony to the fact that the most valuable ventures and victories of Christian living are "...Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts" (Zec. 4:6). I look forward to seeing in glory the mighty champion that disguised himself to this world as Don Dierksheide. May Jesus Christ be praised.

“ Donald was one of the most faithful friends and church members I had. He visited me one time when I was ill with colon cancer. That meant a lot and was very comforting. While conducting the men's meetings at the Detroit Church on various occasions, Don was always faithful in attendance even though he often did not have much to share at the meeting. His presence at the meetings was enough. I love Don and will miss him, but will see him in glory soon. Praise be to God.
