Donald Jack Hagglund

January 24, 1929 - January 24, 2024

Age 95.

Beloved husband of the late Marion for 64 years.

Loving father of Karen (Michael).

Dear brother of the late Robert (Shirley) Hagglund.

Dear brother-in-law of the late George (Geraldine) Jacobson.

Cherished uncle of the late Janet (Keith) Lermينياux, Sharon (Dave)

Stephens, and Lynn (Tony) Bauer.

Caring great uncle to Ryan (Tracey) Lermينياux, Bethany (Kevin) Swanquist, David (Marcella) Stephens, Kelly (Tyler) VanSyckle, and Heather Bauer.

Best friend of Ted (Dolores) Charney.

Donald was a devoted husband and father. He worked for Chrysler for 38 years and provided well for his wife and daughter. He served stateside in the Army during the Korean War. He loved hunting with his best friend Ted, boating, music, dogs, looking at maps, planning trips to Florida, taking care of errands and the bills, looking at real estate listings for properties up north, watching the Detroit Tigers on television, following the activities of his daughter, socializing, and dining and dancing with his wife. He especially enjoyed being at the beloved summer cottage on Duck Lake which he built with his wife in 1967. His family had a long history on Duck Lake. He also loved his Swedish heritage. His father, Charles Hagglund, emigrated from Sundsvall, Sweden. His mother, the former Helen Danielson, was raised in Norway, Michigan by Swedish parents. She gave birth to five children, three of whom died in infancy (Wallace, Roland, and Beverly). She doted on her youngest son Donald. He remains surrounded by the love of his daughter, family, and friends.

“ Don and Marion were wonderful neighbors on Duck Lake for the past 15 years. Don really enjoyed watching our grandchildren learn to water ski, fish, and play in the lake. Don loved discussing his family, and ours, and our Florida vacations. We will miss them both.

“ I loved talking and laughing with our neighbor Don on “windy hill,” between our houses, on his beloved Duck Lake. He had the best stories. I learned a lot about the lake, and he made us feel so welcome. He and Marion were great neighbors and will be missed. May your wonderful memories bring you comfort and peace. 💜 ”
