“ Don McCarty was an awesome dad, grandpa, husband, and to me friend (father in law). I remember the first time I came over to take his daughter out on a date. Leanne was sitting on the porch with her friend Charlie, and as I pulled up to the driveway I walked to the porch to get leanne, of course i was 30 minutes late. I shook Charlies hand and in the window to the living room i saw a man pulling the curtains aside to make sure I was ok for her daughter to go out with. For some reason he let her go out with me still. lol... I remember bringing her home after our date and the front door was open... I was hoping to just drop her off and leave because i already had a great night. Nope..... Dad was making sure i came into the house and met him and of course had a coke which he always had stocked in the basement fridge.. We got to talking, and talking, and talking then i think leanne got mad because our conversation never ended.. We talked about work, life and mostly sports. 20 years we could always just sit there and talk about anything... Don was an unbelievably great man, and I thanked him for letting me be a part of his daughters life. I told him that he made the most beautiful thing (person), I have ever seen in my life and i promised him that i would always love her...
