“ There are so many fun memories of Don: camping, fishing, and of course a party or two! I will always remember him in his "Bama" hat (worn backwards, of course), wearing PJ bottoms and a flannel shirt. Don was quick with a smile and gave bear hugs like none other! Whenever I hear "Afternoons & Coffeespoons" by the Crash Test Dummies, I think of Don! My condolences to the Prah family.

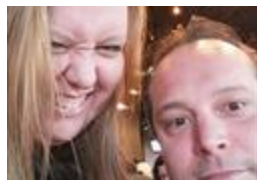

Love, Robyn Ringl

“ Don. Here I am, still expecting you to hop out of Rodney's car yelling "Dreeeamy"
I miss you. I reach for my phone to call you all the time. It doesn't feel real, and it definitely doesn't feel right. So many years and so many memories. My heart is with your family, your friends, and every life you touched in so many ways. RIP Moose... love ya

“Don was an amazing friend, confidant, and coworker! We worked together for years and everyday was fun with our regular routine of jokes. He had a love for listening to conspiracy theories, history stories and documentaries - - even while at work to keep the day moving along. We would talk about what he was listening to, ponder on history and dream about the travels we would each like to venture to someday.

He was devoted to his job and brought an aura of kindness and friendliness unlike any other. Not only did his fellow coworkers adore him, our customers loved him as well. He would enter a room and have so many people reach out to him for guidance and assistance due to his overwhelming knowledge of the pawn business and everything it entailed. Guitars, sports memorabilia, speakers, electronics, cars and tools - just about anything and everything; Don had an idea of its origin and worth; and if he didn't, he was very resourceful to find the answer.

Your kind heart and warm caring soul will be greatly missed by so many. May God rest your soul my dearest friend. I will cherish the wonderful friendship and bond we had and miss you so much. Until we meet again my good buddy...I love you from the bottom of my heart.
