“ Talk about a snowbird, some come and some go. However this snowbird we couldn't wait to see and never wanted to leave. We shared so many activities together: auctions, Fish Fries, playing euchre, hobbies and the love of our families. There are so many memories of Don, such a unique, loving, caring soul. Your friends in “ Don was my dear friend and next door neighbor for 30 years, and there are so many wonderful memories....but my favorite is the first Halloween after I moved in next door to Don and Janet. I was sitting outside with my bucket of candy and passing it out as little trick or treaters came by. It got to be a bit later, so there weren't as many kids still out. A man comes walking over from next door in a flannel shirt, jeans, boots, and a Freddie Krueger type mask on. He walks right up to my porch, stares at me for an awkward 30 seconds or so, tosses some candy in my bucket, turns and walks back next door without saying one word. To say I was freaked out is an understatement!! That was the beginning of a wonderful friendship!! Don was simply one of the most decent, kind, giving, caring people I have ever known. My life is so much richer because he was my neighbor and friend.
