“ Dad, I miss you already. Although you were my dad through marrying Patrick, you truly were a second dad to me. You always made sure I had onion bread on my plate and a full glass of wine in my hands. You loved our girls with a quiet spirit. While you are gone from the Earth, I know you are watching over us as a Guardian Angel. I love you dad and will miss you always....

Love,
Beth

“ St. Mary School in Royal Oak was full of big families. We all filtered through and knew other family members as we went. Don and Sally were in my sister Kathy Flynn's class. I was usually walking down 11 Mile after school with them. I've always felt that Don was one of the kindest people I knew. I saw him again last fall and he was still so very kind. That is exactly how God wants us to live our lives. He was able to be that way all through his life. What a wonderful legacy he has left.

“ I remember the first time I met Don. He was coming to take my older sister DeLaura out on a date. He brought me a coca cola and had a wonderful smile that he never lost, and a twinkle in his eye for DeLaura. The rest is history. He will be missed by many people far and near. Hearts are with you all in your time of grief. xo Marianne Clancy

“ Don was a great older brother. When I was younger, he always came to my rescue and hid it from our Mom! I loved him for that.

The last time I saw Donald was when I went back to MI and Uncle Eugene had been taking a new medication for his health and Donald came over to take him golfing which Aunt Sal said that he was so glad to be able to go golfing again. They didn't take any time getting out the door, with smiles. My brothers and my sister and I loved going over to the Winters house during the summer, when they had backyard BBQ's except we always asked for hotdogs. So after that Aunt Sal always had hot dogs ready. Good memories. Claudia Shutes Shibler KS
