“ There are no words good enough to say about Donna. She was the Head of the “Drake” family. It was her that was there to organize or lend a shoulder to cry on. She was there to give my daughter her nickname when she was a newborn. She was my daughter’s wedding planner. So many people said they had never been to a wedding that beautiful. That was Donna putting her heart and soul in everything she did. When I say God never made a woman with more heart, compassion, giving, caring, wise as Donna. I mean it. I could go on and on of all the good memories I have of her. Thank you for 50 years of being your sister n law. I hope you knew I loved you more than anything. Tonya Drake❤️❤️❤️❤️
