Tribute Wall

“ All of my life I had heard and seen evidence of horrible Mother's In Law. What kind of creature would she be? Would she be the kind that could spit fire? Could she shape-shift into an animal just to keep an eye on her beloved son? Would she stop by unannounced and re-arrange all of my kitchen cabinets BEFORE she took off her coat?

Then in 1985 I met the sweetest, prettiest, little lady who should have been in big box office movies as the Fae Folk or a Princess. Her kindness radiated from her and I melted <<and sighed relief>>. She was so soft spoken and seemingly shy, but she always knew what was what. She kept her opinions to herself and loved it when it was the two of us and I would make her laugh.

Ray couldn't have had a better mother and I couldn't have a better mother-in-law. She was a pleasure to be around and her cooking was top notch. However, she learned to cook at her mother's knee and therefore, she never put the recipes on paper. Her German potato salad was heavenly and her German noodle and soup dishes were fantastic. One thing we had to remember at family dinners ., .
.. MAKE SURE MOM GETS THE TURKEY LEG!

Ray told her I didn't like marshmallows in fruit salad and she would make a little dish (sans marshmallows) just for me. It was little things that she did that made her so kind and great. Oh, but Donna has a deviant side to her as well. Every x-mas we would go there for dinner and she had this GAWD AWFUL dancing Santa singing a song I hated. She would wait for me to get comfy and then switch that monstrosity on and watch me lose my brains!!!!

She will be missed. I love you Donna and I hope you are reunited with your gigantic family in heaven. How happy you must be.

“ My Mother, Betty, and Jim & I lived upstairs in Ma & Pa's house for about 10 years. Donna was like a big sister to me, along with Marilyn and their twin brothers, Dick & Bob. Mom's twin brother John also lived in the house when he came home from the war. Margaret lived there too for a while. There was quite a house full when the Olmsted's came on Sunday to visit. We were one BIG happy family.

I thoroughly enjoyed our trip to Sterling Heights and getting a chance to meet some of you. Our thoughts and and prayers are with you in this time of sorrow!!

“ I have had two mom's in my life, my biological mom whom I love and my Donna! We bickered like mom and daughter would, but I would not have had it any other way! I remember the campsite days and nights, lifetime movie or Law & Order marathons:) She was a loving grandma, mother and dear friend to many. The "Mouse" will be dearly missed and always in our hearts.

“ I met Donna at Schwarzkoff Elementary School in the 1970s and 1980s. She was the 18 Mile Road Crossing Guard. Donna always had a smile either when bowling on the Mothers' League or helping out at school. Thank Donna for keeping my children safe. Rest in Peace. Fondly, Margaret (Turnbell).
