“ My Gorgeous Auntie Doreen I am so grateful that Sheryl and I were lucky enough to have you as our Auntie. Even though we have lived thousands of miles apart non-one would ever know this as you have always been a constant in our lives be it supporting us with issues life throws at us, giving us guidance, making us laugh with family stories to making us feel like Royal Oak was and will continue to be our second home. For all this love and support we will be eternally grateful and can never thank you enough. I have so many fantastic memories with you from you doing my hair, perming, highlighting and cutting to the point I was the envy of my girlfriends and me proudly telling them it was all down to the talents of my fabulous auntie, think a few of them even tried to muscle in and try to get you to do theirs too..! Your pancake making skills are second to none and the colossal amounts weâ??d ask you to make every time you came home to the UK or when we descended to your house in Royal Oak. Letâ??s also not forget how you introduced us to Sloppy Joeâ??s and our holidays together when you and the boys came over to the UK. As well as the lovely family stories youâ??d tell us about all of the Kirner family and the adventures you got up throughout your life. Iâ??m so thankful that I was able to come over in June and spend some amazing moments with you , for you to meet Ava and see her singing and dancing for you, for you to tell us she is in training to be â??bonkersâ? and seeing you smile and giggle with us, these memories and all the many others over the years are ones I will cherish forever. You are now with Mum and Nan shining down on us all and keeping an eye on us. Rest in peace and know that you have been an amazing and wonderful woman who touched our hearts more than you can ever know. You will be forever in our hearts and thoughts and we love you dearly. “ Sitting here and thinking where do I begin Doreen, of course I will miss you loads knowing that you are no longer with us all, but pleased that you are now at peace. You know that I loved you lots, but you also know that was not always the case, how as a little girl I hated you so much for having the same nan as myself and for getting smacked on the legs from my mum for being naughty and not sharing. Also every time I saw you I had to stand on a chair for ages while you put my hair in ringlets and once again you got me told off and I got a smack on the legs again for not standing still. I finally forgave you for the time I spent on the chair having ringlets on the day of Joyce's wedding when you told me to stand on the chair to have my hair done, how Aunt Blanche, Joyce, you and I laughed, we giggled until the tears run down our faces and then when Aunt Blanche finally stopped laughing she told you off for wasting time and that caused more laughter and then when you did not have much time left for you to get yourself ready your mum told you off for all the time wasted with laughter and we all giggled again, including your mum. I will never forget the holiday to Italy with the cousins, once again I think you, Gloria, Barbara and I spent the whole time laughing and you taking over the mike on the coach in Rome and singing the Al Jolson songs. You eating cold chinese for breakfast at ours and making us all feel sick and when you were missing you were sitting under the 'old oak tree'. With my fondest love, you will always be in my heart Your dreadful cousin Dawn

“ Dear Doreen, We are just so terribly sad at your passing. You were an amazing lady, the best auntie and god mother and always there for Tracie and I when mum passed. And it meant the world to us, and always will. We'll hold the memories of your stories, taking my mum off travelling through Europe and causing all sorts of havoc in Rome, your laughter, your cooking, your sense of adventure and making us feel like Royal Oak was our 2nd home, very close to our hearts always. I'll remember the delight at you knocking on the front door and surprising me for my 21st and the many chats in the chair in the front room over the years fondly, as well as drinking egg nog with you and Uncle Ken at 2am in the morning when I surprised him for his 80th birthday giggling in the dark together! Its a testament to you and Mum in teaching us that no matter where we all are in the world, no matter what distance that family is family. The Kirner gene lives on in both Trace & I and the boys and the kids and may it long continue. May you rest in peace and we'll take a little comfort knowing you are now with Mum and Nan and may you kick your heels up with them both and celebrate the fabulous life you have lived and all the hearts you have touched. Forever in our thoughts. Sheryl & Daniel xxx
