“ My Grandmother was a true angel on earth. As I think of my grandmother many different memories come to mind, the first is how gentle her spirit was and how pure and precious and selfless her heart was. I remember grandma inviting me to sleep with her during thunderstorms and her holding me and making me feel safe and sound. Loved to come downstairs and see grandma sitting in the dinette listening to the radio. Playing games with grandma were some of the best memories especially playing Heckbridge instead of Hellbridge. There will not be a day that goes by where you will not be in my thoughts and prayers. I love you to the moon and back grandma always and forever. All my love, Lisa
