“ I work at Woodward Hills Nursing Center, I am the Assistant Director of Food Service, where Doris was a Patient. Her and I got know each other during the Main Dining Room Lunch Program. I asbolutely adored this Lady. Richard would come just about every day and sit by her side while she eat lunch. I got to know him as well. What a great family. Doris went to the hospital and was expected to return to Woodward Hills on the day she pasted. My heart goes out deeply to the Richard and the family. She was a great Lady and will be well missed by me. Thank-you for giving me you time. My heart is sadden by this lost of Doris. Richard, and your family will always be in my heart.
