

Dorothy J. Bodo

September 22, 1937 - March 26, 2023

Bodo, Dorothy J. passed away on March 26, 2023, at the age of 85. She was born on September 22, 1937, to the late Nicholas and Helen Bodo in Detroit, Michigan.

Dorothy was the loving devoted aunt and godmother of Emilie Bodo, sister of the late Nicholas, and a dear friend to so many. Her kind and loving spirit will be deeply missed by all who knew her.

Dorothy was a lifelong resident of Royal Oak and graduated from Shrine High School. She was a devoted English teacher for 30 years at Madison Heights High School. Her passion for literature and writing continued even after retirement, as she went on to publish over 40 novels. Her love for storytelling and writing was evident in her work and touched the hearts of many.

Dorothy had a warm and generous heart and made many dear friends throughout her life. She also cherished the companionship of her collies, who were as much a part of her life as anyone. In her later years, she rescued Collies and brought much happiness into their lives.

Dorothy loved traveling, particularly to Europe, and she had a special fondness for Italy. Her travels provided her with inspiration for her writing and gave her many cherished memories.

A private burial was held for Dorothy at Oakview Cemetery in Royal Oak, MI. A virtual memorial service will be held Wednesday, April 5th at 7:00 pm <<https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87904764974?pwd=bEhwOVkrb3BRV01FZEIKWjZtNHBHQT09&from=addon>> to accommodate Dorothy's many friends and fans out of state, and local in person memorial service will be scheduled for a later date. Please share your memories of Dorothy at SullivanFuneralDirectors.com.
