“ Dorothy, was the Best Friend anyone could have asked for! Over 40 years ago we met when she came over after we moved in next door? We did alot together like spring cleaning & fall,I loved it she hated it! We took long walks after we had dinner with the kids. We will walk again! Love Always Micky❤️

“ When I think of Dorothy, I think of kindness. On every family get together, she was always happy to see everyone and gave them a hug. I know her family was her joy and she showed it through her gentleness and love.
