

Dorothy Coyle

December 17, 1947 - May 12, 2025

Dorothy M. Coyle, a longtime resident of Berkley, passed away on Monday, May 12, 2025, at the age of 77.

Born on December 17, 1947, in Detroit, Michigan, she was the daughter of Edward and Irene Dubicki. Dorothy graduated from Hamtramck High School and devoted her life to raising and caring for her family.

Dorothy was known for her incredibly friendly nature—she could strike up a conversation with anyone and had a remarkable memory for details. To her, everyone was a friend. She loved baseball, especially the Detroit Tigers. While she mostly watched games on TV, she enjoyed the times she attended in person.

A lover of travel, Dorothy frequently visited Las Vegas and California, and she enjoyed gambling during her trips. She was also an avid reader who appreciated any book that came her way.

Dorothy's warmth and kindness left a lasting impression on everyone she met.

Beloved wife of Philip. Loving mother of Tammy (Drew) LaPointe. Cherished grandmother of Kellan LaPointe. Dear sister of Annie Dubicki.

“ My dear friend Dorothy and I worked together for many years at J.L.Hudson Co. downtown Detroit on the 18th floor.We got an unpaid hour for lunch and a few of us would have lunch at one of the wonderful restaurants there in the 70s.I remember selling Dorothy my Nova and giving her driving lessons on Belle Isle.I was there at her wedding.A few years later she was overjoyed at the birth of her baby girl Tammy.She was an true friend who was always ready for an adventure and an amazing cook who enjoyed cooking for her family.Dorothy loved her family and friends and was true to her faith .May she rest in Heavenly peace.
