“ Aunt Dorothy was always sweet and kind, and we always had a nice Christmas party at their place every year. She always was amused and interested by what her nieces and nephews were getting into and doing with there lives. At a young age I moved after joining the Air Force, but I always tried to visit her and my Uncle Bob when I could. Aunt Dorothy had a lot of strength and patience as well, taking care of my Uncle Bob for so long after his stroke, it actually was very inspiring but I can only imagine how difficult that was for her. I will always remember her smile and laughter! Love, Bob (nephew)
