“ Sorry to here about your loved ones passing. I will say a prayer for her, but knowing she was loved by her family, knowing that God has his plans for her, hoping that will assist you in your grieving for her passing and to make things a little easier on the family.

“ There are many wonderful memories of mother. She was a dedicated mother raising her three kids including being there for all her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. My favorite memory of mom was the day she hiked up Superstition Mountain in Arizona. She was a real trouper dodging all the Cholla Cactus and climbing up and over rocks. Finally reaching a high point where she was impressed that she was able to look out over the desert and see the city of Phoenix in the distance. In the meantime, Dad stayed at the bottom with his dog Tip my little brother because he wasn't able to climb to great heights.
