“ My grandmother had so many wonderful qualities she was kind, caring, generous, loving, proud, and nurturing just to name a few. This list could continue on forever as most of you who were blessed with her presence in your life know. All of these wonderful qualities that she possessed have helped me become the person I am today. Her love for God has been passed down to each and every one of us here today. I personally have inherited my grandma's love for drinking tea and honey. My grandma was a very simple person who enjoyed the little things in life and she seemed to enjoy every minute of life as if it might have been her last. My grandmother's love for God and her strong faith began early in her life. Throughout her life she turned to her faith for guidance. Her faith was so strong that at one point in her life she felt her calling was to become a nun. Luckily for all of us here today God had another plan for her. She went to Connecticut where she met and fell in love with my grandfather. So here we are today 6 children, 14 grandchildren, and 2 great grandchildren later. As I sat writing, the memories that flood my mind are those always full of love. My grandma showed so much passion for life and for all of her family. Her smile lit up a room. Even at the saddest of times her smile would always reassure you that things were going to be okay. Just recently when she was laying in the hospital bed in pain, with her family surrounding her, we began to sing you are my sunshine, for those of you who don't know that was one of my grandma favorite songs to sing to us. Through all the pain she managed to show us one of those reassuring smiles. I will miss so many things about my grandma, her memorable J.M.J. Jesus, Mary & Joseph that she wrote on each envelope, the fact that every Birthday card began with Dearest Sweetheart Granddaughter Amanda Dorothy, recently she wrote Dearest Sweetheart Granddaughter ôDrö Amanda Dorothy. My grandma was so proud of the fact that I am going to school to pursue a career in medicine. So proud that in fact she told so many people that I was going to be a doctor one day. She often even told people she had just met, but most of you know that was a quality my grandma had. She had the ability to show a total stranger the love that she showed her own family daily. It seems as if it were only yesterday that we were kneeling praying on the pink shag carpet, walking around the block singing you are my sunshine. I would give so very much to be able to do this again with you one more time. However I know that I will see you again one day, and then we will have eternity to do all of these things again. My grandma's final moments were spent with her loving children and grandchildren around her watching Annie and sharing memories. This is special because in that movie...the theme is "the sun will come out tomorrow" I'm sure my grandma wants us all to realize this... don't be sad...because the sun will come out tomorrow. For we will all see her again one day and until then she will be looking down on us from heaven.

“ Uncle Charles and Family, We send you our heartfelt condolences. There is a phrase "if everyone lit just one little candle, what a bright world this would be". Your dear Dorothy was just such a candle who added a brightness to this world, not only with that warm smile but with her kind, and loving heart! She will be missed but we will never forget the care with which she was always there for others. We are blessed to have known her and grateful for the memories we have. Love to all, Bernie, Peg and Kristen

“ Dear Charles and family, How blessed we all are to have known such a wonderful, beautiful, and devout soul that was Dorothy. She was and is a rare gem--precious in this world and precious in God's eyes! She will be missed but never forgotten! Her example is a lovely reminder of what it is to be a true Catholic, wife, and mother! God bless you and yours! May God forever embrace Dorothy in HIS loving arms and may we see her and all of our loved ones again! Love, Gloria Kupstas

“ To all of the Dubauskas Family: Aunt Dorothy was a very special person who devoted her life to her family and church. I remember her living with us in CT. and making those wonderful graham cracker pies. I remember her taking care of my mother after her open -heart surgery with loving compassion and empathy. Mark and I send our heartfelt sympathy to the entire family. Her love and kindness for people will always be remembered. May all of your good memories be a source of healing and comfort to you. Love Ya, Mary T.
