“ Lorraine, I remember well since very young at old St. Thomas your parents, you and Donald, and Dorothy. Later as I became older, Dorothy and I along with others were co-workers on the elaborate Sunday School Christmas pageants complete with costumes for all the children that we put on every year for the congregation. Dorothy was a lovely woman, always, and the picture in the paper is just as lovely as can be. Believe I last saw her and met her husband back in 1986 at a party. My sympathy to you and all the family.
