I am Doug's step brother, and we used to get up early in the morning and run up to Grossmont High, do a few laps around the Track and then back home before school started. “ I'm really sorry that I couldn't be there today. But even sorrier about how few days I spent with him before now. Why do we always think the people we love will be there forever?? My heart is with you, Marty, and with the kids and grandkids. What will you do without Doug to tease the living * out of you?? Be at peace, Big Bro! I love you.
