“ I was sorry to hear of the passing of Earl. My father, Kenneth Koch, thought very highly of him and considered him a good friend. On the few occasions that I met Earl I shared this opinion. My condolences to the family.

“ I started the Murray Tool & Die apprenticeship March 1940 where I met Earl, one of the senior apprentices. A few years later on February 11, 1945 on a Sunday morning when I was on leave from the Navy I was walking down the street in the middle of Detroit with my lady and saw Earl approaching with a lady walking arm in arm. Earl introduced me and said this is my wife Mary and we were married yesterday. Then I said this is my wife Mary and we were married yesterday. Then Earl said they are coming from church. I repeated that we were just coming from church. After a few moments we parted and began a new life with our wives. According to the newspaper Mary Hagedorn predeceased Earl and my Mary left me 14 years ago.. I see The Hagedorns raised a nice family as did my wife and I. I offer my sympathy to Earl's family and may God bless you all. Sincerely Oscar Weiss
