“ You may be gone from my life, but you will never be forgotten in my life. We had so much fun together and we both kept coming up with our plans on what we were going to do next. We laughed together so much about just stupid things we always had things to say to each other. Your at peace now and I thank you for our happy times we had together love you Colleen

“ Earlene was a dedicated Kiwanian. She volunteered at our Kiwanis Club of Shelby Golden K Loan Closet and soon after wanted to join our club. She joined and became a member of our club on February 26, 2024. Earlene put her heart and soul into helping our Golden K club service the Seniors and Veterans of the community. She was a great organizer at the Loan Closet, attending all the meetings, she was on the board, worked at our fundraisers, attended all our social evenings and always had a smile on her face. Our club named Earlene our KIWANIAN OF THE YEAR recipient! In the short year and 7 months that she has been a member of our Golden K she became a friend to us all. You will be missed friend and Kiwanian!! RIP Earlene! Shirley & Ted Medlin
