“ Thank you for reaching out to our family when our mom passed away. I know she counted you amongst her best of friends Jean. Heavens gain! I think she would be proud of how her family is handling things. At one point, while she was still hospitalized she opened her eyes and said, "Take care of each other". I am proud to say we are all watching over each other. Just missing my mom.

“ Donna, I am just viewing the postings for the first time and so appreciate your kinds words about my mom. I remember your mom so well and that she had such a bad problem with her arm before she passed. Did my mother ever tell you of the dream she had of her the night before your mom passed? She dreamt that your mom was completely fine, with her arms outstretched and smiling. She didn't say a word in the dream. The next morning she said to my dad, "I think something happened to Rita". Of course dad, with his gruff voice said, "you just talked to her daughter and she is still kicking". At 10 am or so mom got the call that your mom passed. Now they are together again. I will be adding you to my Christmas list . . . our moms would like that! Meg

“ Edith was my Mother's first cousin Rita O'Brien Leonard. Edith was a very special lady. My Mom passed away 16 years ago and every year on the anniversary of her death I have received a card and beautiful note from Edith. I always looked forward to that correspondence. When we lived in Michigan-she visited with my Mom and they enjoyed many lunches together. She made the trip to Rochester for my Mom's funeral-it was so comforting to have her there. She was truly a very thoughtful and genuinely caring person. We know heaven has gained an Angel. My sincere condolences to the Tuohey Family. Donna & John Jensen

“ I have been fortunate to know Edith since the 1970's. She worked at St. Lawrence Rectory and I was in the Education Department. Edith was always happy, always smiling, always ready to share a good laugh. She will be missed. Knowing her has been a privilege. I know she is Home, making the angels and saints there smile and joining her in fun times. A very, very special lady.

“ When I first met Mrs. Tuohey, I mistook her caring curiosity for an intensive interrogation! To qualify as a friend of one of her children, she did have a bit of a list of qualifiers, but her genuine interest and astute conversations would always leave me wanting to come back for more. Some thirty years later, I had the pleasure of dropping in on her, and renewing our friendship. A year later, she took the initiative to attend the funeral home when my father passed away. My wife and I were overwhelmed by her thoughtfulness. The picture of her above captures her wonderful spirit, and intuitive ability to put a smile on your face. Our hearts, thoughts and prayers go out to the entire Tuohey family in their loss of another wonderful family member. May you find peace and solace in the many memories you made with her.

“ I was indeed fortunate to have such a wonderful lady in my life and my late mother's life as well she will be dearly missed. Through the years, we had many long and interesting conversations over a range of topics. Of particular importance to her were her family members, both living and deceased. Dear Edith, now that you are in the hands of Jesus, free from the trials and concerns of this life, may you rest in eternal peace.

“ What a lovely lady, so generous and patient. She was one of my favorite people at St. Lawrence and I'll always appreciate her kindness and empathy. She was a true gem, someone who definitely made the world a better place throughout her life. She has earned her heavenly reward and can now tell Fr. Burns what's for.

“ I was deeply saddened when I learned of Edith's passing. When I think of her, a flood of adjectives comes to mind, there is one word that I believe is fitting â??Remarkableâ?; her fortitude and deep faith, love of her husband Bob and family, and pride in them all. We will all miss her greatly, but we are all better for having and knowing her. God Bless her. You have my most sincere condolences. Jerome J. Klobukowski

“ I was so sorry to hear of Mrs. Tuohey's passing. Mrs. Tuohey was one of those special people who radiated goodness and had a joy and passion for life. She was someone who always asked after your family not just for the sake of being polite. And she didn't just want to hear "Oh, everyone's fine." She wanted ALL the details and was genuinely interested in how everyone was doing. She was the definition of grace. A woman who suffered so many heartaches in life and never seemed to wallow in self-pity and especially never lost her faith and trust in God. What an example and what a legacy to leave for her family. My prayers and thoughts are with you especially Karen, Jessica and Colleen. Love you all, "Miss Judy"
