“ Tom, So sorry to hear about your dad. I rememebr all the rides to school, the trips to the drive-in and cedar point in the "old days" and who could forget that "damned sqeegee"? Please share my condolences with the rest of your family. I will be in touch soon as it's been too long. Mike Libby

“ Dearest Dad, I was wondering how you are and have been thinking about you today. You are now in a place so beyond my understanding that I can only imagine what it is like in my heart. Last night as Julie and I lay in bed, all I could think about were the good times you and I had and the funny things we did together. Like the times we'd listen to jazz on your stereo on Hunter. Jeez, those speakers were 6' tall, remember? Even when we'd hit the Royal Oak legion and watch the games with the guys. Rest peacefully now Marine, I will see you soon. Until then, thank you for being my second father and most importantly for just being you! Semper Fi Mark
