“ My deepest sympathies. Ed was one of my most favorite FB friends. I am so sorry to hear of his passing. I am sure he's greatly missed by his family and friends. Deepest love to all who knew him, especially to his wife Karen who he obviously loved and adored very much. 💔 Grief is so hard. Peace.

“ My fondest memories of Ed are of just being together, mostly just doing something fun and enjoying what he called "God's country" (the view from the deck off the back of their house). Over the past 20+ years we have shared many laughs, many celebrations, many stories from his past, much music, many movies and also many discussions, some deep and profound. He made a mean spaghetti sauce and also the BEST popcorn. Although he married my best friend, he immediately accepted me as one of HIS best friends too, and was always there to help in any way he could--be it answering a computer question, moving some furniture, or just listening and offering a constructive suggestion or a positive outlook. He made it clear I could always count on him and Karen to be there for whatever I needed. His family was also very welcoming to me. He was a great guy who loved his wife, family and friends, and truly did care about the welfare of the common man and the world as a whole, and wanted it to be a better place. Smart, hard-working, respectful and with a good sense of humor, he also knew how to live life to the fullest and how to really enjoy it, and wanted everyone around him to be able to be happy and enjoy life too. We will miss him so very much. But I know he is thoroughly enjoying himself at that big Rock and Roll party in the sky...

My sincere condolences to all his friends and family. Rest in peace, my friend.

“ I have had the pleasure working with Ed for many years. Ed was a man who stood by his convictions and was always willing to share his feeling. He was a champion of the downtrodden. Ed had exceptional skills in his trade and a great rapport with everyone he encountered. We will miss Ed, but we know his Sprit will live on.

“ Dear Beth and Karen,
We feel much sorrow for the sudden, precious loss of one whom you love so deeply. I just remember Ed being such a gentle, kind-hearted man. In conversation, he had a way of giving an uplifting perspective on things and situations. May the Lord uphold you with a peace that surpasses all understanding while you are surrounded by the love of family and friends. We are in prayer for your family. -
