“ Eddie was one of my best friends growing up. There was a period where we hung around every day. He taught me how to drive a stick shift in his old blue dodge Ram truck. It always amazed me how he could light up a room and make every one laugh. He surely will be missed by many! I think of him often and want his family to know they have my condolences...

“ Eddie, saying goodbye to today was one of the hardest things I've ever had to do. Our kids will always cherish the time they had with you and I will never let them forget how much you loved them. I thank you for giving me the three most important things in my life, our children. For that I will always be thankful. I love you forever and I know your in a good place where your taken care of now and out of pain. God has your soul now so rest in peace Eddie.

“ Eddie, you have left this world too soon but God apparently had a plan to take you and take away all your pain. I will treasure the time we had together. Thank you for your love and companionship and for you always being appreciative. Yes Eddie, that soft spot in my heart you would ask about will always be there for you. Gods arms will now be around you and you will be taken care of and in peace. I Love you, Alice.P.S. Condolences and prayers to Eddies family and friends, especially his children.
