“ I remember cousin Edward growing up with him and his family. What fond memories growing up. Especially the get togethers attending the wonderful spaghetti dinners that his mother made. Aunt Anna was my Dad's sister. We ran around the neighborhood, danced to songs, played hide and seek, we did a lot of things kids and teenagers did. Can't believe he's gone but the memories will always be cherished.

I'm living in Florida now and I'm sorry I lost touch with that family. Time and distance makes it inexcusable but has become the reason. Edward is up with our Lord now and all the family members that have gone before are there too to welcome him with comforting arms. Rest in peace Edward!

“ I met all the Muccino's when I was 15 yrs old. I met Robert (Edward's brother) when I was in high school. I met Edward, Patrice, Marc, and the little one Matthew at that time. We spent our teen years together along with many aunts, uncles, cousins, grandparents, and of course my 2nd parents mom Anna and dad Edward. So many memories, fun, laughs, tears and grieving too! Special holidays with the best spaghetti and meatballs you can't even imagine! I married Robert in 1968. Makes me almost 77 now (YIKES)! We had Edwards nephew and niece Robert and Jennifer who also gave us 3 beautiful granddaughters Deven, Paige and Ella. Even though Robert and I went separate ways, I remained heartfelt close to the people I considered my family. I met Nancy a few years after I married. I thought, what a beautiful, petite, kind girl! We all love her! Her kindness and love turned her to nursing. And I am saying this, because she was with Edward at home fulfilling all his needs until they both lovingly said goodbye. I give her the utmost respect and acknowledgment of her unconditional love and support she gave to Edward. I love Edward and the fact that he represents a great large, loving, kind, and fun family. God Bless you Nancy, children, grandchildren, family and friends. All of you will be forever in my heart. Katherine Flick (Muccino)

Thank you Kathy for a truly beautiful tribute. I loved Edward with all my heart, and will always miss him but I know he is finally free and happy once more.
