“ I initially started this using the word “mourn”, but then realized I did not want to mourn, I want to rejoice in the love and kindness that Ed was generous enough to share with all he knew. His smile was infectious and lit up the room, his handshake warm and inviting & his hugs were like being wrapped in a big fuzzy blanket that you never wanted to leave. Nothing could make you laugh more than Ed being mischievous in his unique child-like manner, which was always followed-up with “Now don’t tell Marilyn!” (as if she didn’t know).

I know that each & every one of us will mention what a blessing Ed was in our lives, but I am most thankful that he blessed my dear sweet Marilyn with the love, joy & happiness they have shared all these years. Thank you Big Sis for knowing he was the perfect one and bringing him into our lives, giving us the honor of having him touch our hearts.

Rest in Peace Teddy Bear and may your angel wings be made of the same pure gold that your heart & soul were.

“ As I sit here trying to think of words to comfort you and your family Marilyn, I'm at a total loss. I know that there are no words to help the grief and sadness that you all must feel at this devastating time in your lives. Ed was a great man. He always was with a kind word and gentle soul. More like a big teddy bear that will be missed by all of us that he called friends and family. May he now rest in peace with his Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen

“ My family has lost a true family friend. From G.U.T.S. (God Using Total Servants 5-6 grade ministry) to Glory, he has shared his life with each of our family members. He and Marilyn helped guide my children in their spiritual paths. His stories at Sunseekers camp outs, humor, cheerfulness and kind words will always be remembered! Our family grieves the loss of a true friend, but we will see him again! May God bless your family during this time of loss, may His peace be given to each one you. You all are in our thoughts and prayers. Jim and Marilyn Ronan

“ Ed was a kind man with the funniest jokes. I'll always remember him coming over to my house everyday when I had my broken ankle and keeping me company, and once I got my clearance to drive he insisted on taking me to House of Ruben although I drove. That was a site to see me on my crutches and him with his cane but we hobbled right on in there like we owned the joint. Ed you also got me hooked on Flip Flop wine and one finding the "big" bottle at the best price. You've provided me many fond memories that I will cherish. I know you weren't happy when I cut your apple trees down however it made your wife happy so you let me do it for her. Marilyn your husband was a source of enjoyment and we were so happy to know him. We're here for you in anything you might need. Ed may you rest peacefully and it was a pleasure to know you.

Your smile, your jokes & the way you loved Marilyn are things I will never forget. When I was greeting you always said somethin to make me laugh on Sunday mornings. I know with out a doubt that you have already heard "Well done my good & Faithful Servant". We will all miss you but I'm happy that you are no longer in pain but listening to the beautiful sounds of Praise & Worship in Heaven ❤️

Hmmmm, Ed's jokes...where do I begin? This is what he would do on Sunday morning to my "Follicley Impaired" husband Garey. Ed would come up to Garey from behind and rub his clean shaven bald head, and say "the glare was blinding him, could he tone it down?" Lol! We all would laugh and group hug. Man, I'm going to miss that guy. We love you Marilyn, Amanda and Josh!
