“ Dear Terri, Lisa informed me about your mom today. I was so sad to hear about her. After our many conversations about her I felt I knew her. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Although I am not able to be with you in person please know I am with you in spirit. Be kind to yourself and give yourself the time you need to get through this. I know she will be missed deeply. Call me if you need anything. Love and peace, Marie Kolf

“ Dear Cousins, May you always hold in your heart the awareness that the love and affection you shared with Eileen will forever warm your spirit whenever the cold breeze of sadness or loneliness touches your lives. She will always live in your memories. We will remember Eileen with her beautiful smile and wonderful Irish sense of humor. May you take comfort in the knowledge that you shared in the final months of Eileen's journey with such tender love and devotion. Your dedication and care are an inspiration to us all! May you find peace in the realization that you brought so much joy to Eileen's life that she was reluctant to leave you for her reservation in Heaven. She will be there to welcome you when you reach the ultimate "red carpet" and Golden Gate. May God surround all of you with His love. Love Alan & Daisy Rickfelder

“ Dear Cauley Family, My most sincere condolences to all. Please know that your beloved mother is with the Lord in his Kingdom. Know too, that each of you have done everything possible to make certain that Eileen received the very best care of anyone I know because of your devotion to her. Your family is truly an inspiration to others. You should all be proud of yourselves and of each other! It is a testament to the wonderful job your mother did in raising you. God Bless. Pat Rosso
