“ My heart weighs very heavy for the loss of my grandma, but my heart also sings with all of my memories of her...especially of all my childhood memories and all the time I got to spend together with her. Words cannot express the sorrow I'm feeling of being so far away from all of my family at this time, but know that my heart and spirit are with each and everyone of you during this time. Grandma, I will think of you often as I always do..you will be missed greatly, and until we meet again.....I LOVE YOU. Wendy Lynn

“ Dear Eileen,I am so glad you came into my life. Even though we were not close for many years because you lived in one part of the country and I in another, you were always in my heart. Now that I am back in Michigan I had hoped to see you. I know we will meet again. Love, Marlene

“ Dear Johnson family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Eileen Johnson. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.
