“ Marshall Street was the greatest street to live on growing up. Having Ellie, Chuck and kids living next door was a blast!!! There was always something going on next door. So many GREAT Memories. I can hear her now "just one more cup of coffee and a couple more rolls of the dice and I have to get home and get busy before the kids and Chuck get home" Love ya all

“ Ellie is dearly loved and cherished. No one could smile and laugh like Ellie. No one could light up a room like Ellie. And from now on, whenever I hear thunder, I will know that is Ellie bowling with the angels in heaven. I'm pretty sure she's had enough time by now to get a league started! My heart and prayers are with Chuck and his family. He has many special daughters who will be watching over him, and because of that, I know that Ellie is resting in peace. Much love. Katie Sykes

“ My earliest memories are of Ellie playing piano in her livingroom, I lived 2 doors down, and can remember hearing the music in my front yard! I remember being so impressed! I will always remember her rocking her babies , she always seemed to have time to rock her babies when she had 4 or 5 other children running around. I also remember the kids on Marshall dancing In their livingroom. Great memories!
