

Eleanor Macey

August 3, 1947 - April 21, 2020

Eleanor Macey (nee Czarnecki) of Washington Township, Michigan; passed away to be with our Savior, on Tuesday, April 21, 2020. She was born to Frank and Eleanor Czarnecki on August 3, 1947, in Detroit, Michigan. Ellie is survived by her best friend, love of her life, and husband of fifty years, Raymond Douglas Macey. She is also survived by her parents, Benjamin and Virginia Campbell. She was the loving mother of Andrea (Wayne) Ogne and Christy (Vito) Ferro. She was the adoring grandmother of Raechel and Monica Ogne, Rayel and Cecelia Ferro. Gracious aunt to many nieces and nephews, with whom she loved and loved her. Ellie kept the family together. She is the one who always brought everyone to the table. She enjoyed cooking, the beach, blood marys, letters, camping, the casino, Polish food, and a good joke, every time. She loved to paint, play games and spend nights with her granddaughters, travel with her husband and spoil her pup, CJ. Ellie is know for her honest truth and warm hugs. She was the epitome of unequivocal love, always. She is deeply loved by her family and friends. She will be truly missed. There will be a private memorial planned in the near future. Information will be provided when available. Arrangements entrusted to the Wm. Sullivan and Son Funeral Home, 8459 Hall Road (3 blks east of Van Dyke Avenue), Utica. Please share a memory with her family at www.SullivanFuneralDirectors.com

I will miss you, dear friend. Our trip to the Keys, the cocktails by the pool but especially our lunches and laughter. You brightened my day and my life. I will surely miss you.
