“ Eleanor You were a second mother to me. An extra plate was always set at your table the nights my mom was working. You taught me to make gnocchi, appreciate good salami and enjoy the company of a dozen people at your table all talking at once. You took me to large Italian weddings that included children held at halls back in the 1960's and to mass on Sundays when I stayed at your house overnight. I knew you as a kind, strong women who also had a wonderful sense of humor. I will miss you always. Love Gwen

“ My deepest sympathy to the family and friends of my friend Eleanor. She gave so much to others. As a volunteer at St. Joe Henry Ford Macomb for so many great years she made the patients feel so very special, co-workers jobs so much easier and made me feel so loved. She went out of her way to do so much for so many. Eleanor, I will miss you everyday. God bless you and be with your loved ones during their time of sorrow.
