“ Our deepest sympathy to the Tresnak family. Mrs. Tresnak was a friend of my mother, Pat Hoemke who passed away in December. They were in creative writing classes together and even traveled, going to Elderhostels to attend classes. They enjoyed attending concerts during the summer in downtown Royal Oak, but they most enjoyed sharing stories about their families, especially the grandkids. I got to know your mom while gardening for many summers in her gardens on Butternut...just a lovely lady! She is fondly remembered....

“ I just read in the paper about your mothers passing. Bette and I hung wallpaper for her and through that experience we met Anastasia Saunders. We then started to clean their homes and do other jobs around the house. She was a delight to work for and we had many wonderful days together. May she rest in peace.

“ Dear Paul & Tom and family, It was with a heavy heart that I received the news of your mom passing. The Bruder family felt very blessed to have you and your mom present with us at our mom's her sister Corinne's funeral just a few months ago. I will miss seeing her at the family reunions. We will be keeping you in our hearts and lifting you up in our prayers. Love, Clare Bruder Kolevar

“ Dear Tresnak family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Eleanor Tresnak. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes pain and grief and sometimes it seems unbearable. The Scriptures contain comfort that can assist us during times of distress. The ransom of Jesus and the hope of seeing my loved one again in the resurrection brought me comfort. I would like to share these three scriptures with you to give you comfort John 5:28, 29, Acts 24:15 and Romans 15:4. May the God of comfort give you peace and rest.
