“ I only had the privilege of knowing Elfriede for a little while. Whenever she came to our worship services you could see the joy of God in her. She was so delightful. When I learned of all of the years she served as a nurse, and the care she gave to her family, it helped me to realize what a truly kind and compassionate person she was. God only knows the countless lives she touched as she loved and cared for them. That truly is living a blessed life. I feel for her family's loss, and rejoice in the life she is now experiencing in the very presence of her Savior Jesus. It was my joy to have known her, even if only for a somewhat brief time.
