“ To the Judy, Mary, Suzi and Families, my sympathies to you all in the loss of your Aunt. Know that you all did well by her in all that she would allow. She is finally home with her people and free. May she rest in peace. Peace, Maureen

“ Aunt Elizabeth made me feel like such a special person! She wrote me the sweetest letters, always signed "love from you old Aunty." She will be missed, but I know she's in heaven with Uncle Herman.

“ I was Elizabeth's next door neighbor for three years starting in 1968. She was always such a sweet, loving person to me and my family. Until the last few years I usually had tea with her every Christmastime to catch up on our lives. No one could ask for a better neighbor. I'm sorry I wasn't able to say goodbye to her.
